Key Discussion Points & Action Items:

Upcoming Week – No New User Stories

- There will be no new user stories assigned next week.
- Focus will be on finalization and review.

Brief and Website Evaluation

- [Supervisor/Stakeholder] will be reviewing the project brief and website next week.
- Ensure all project components align and are up to standard.

UML Diagrams

- UML diagrams must accurately reflect the final product.
- Any changes in functionality should be mirrored in the diagrams.

Project Releases

- Do not forget to include versioned releases.
- Releases should be clearly marked and pushed to GitHub.

Testing Requirements

- Target testing coverage is 80%, but a minimum of 70–75% is acceptable.
- Automated testing and user testing are both required.

Project Readiness

- o The platform must be fully ready for marking by Lucky (presumably the reviewer/lecturer).

GitHub Requirements

- o The Trello board link must be included on GitHub.

- o Ensure all documentation and project files are accessible from the repository.

User Testing

- o In addition to automated tests, at least 4 external users must test the website:

  - ▪ 2 testers should simulate client roles.

  - ▪ 2 testers should simulate freelancer roles.

- o Provide clear instructions on what to test and how to report issues or improvements.

- o Any broken features must be reported immediately.

Admin Testing

- o Refiloe will be responsible for testing the admin side of the platform.
